Discussion regarding possible venues:

Carroll and Molinda will draft a prospectus to provide to potential exhibit venues

Molinda will begin a calendar of exhibit schedules

Chris Z reported we have the option to exhibit at Yellow Springs Arts Council during August of 2019. There is a cost of $20 per quilt exhibited.

Rosemary will keep us posted regarding possibility of exhibiting at WSU

Fran suggested we consider schools

Janet will contact CJ and Carroll. She will also contact the Fitton Center for Creative Arts

Carroll will contact Dayton Metro Library

Molinda will contact Stivers School for the Arts and potential contacts at Sinclair.

Embroidery Squares: Linda Morgan will host “Fascinating Fasteners” in her home, on a Saturday, March 24th, 10am to 2pm. The focus will be to sew fasteners on the square's corners to connect them all for a show. Linda will provide lunch and sewing machines. Any antique or antique looking buttons, no less than 3/4” can be donated to the cause.

Bear's Mill: Sue was asked to provide more images of quilts, so they are still considering an exhibit.

New Business:

Tuesday Study Group:

Tuesday, March 6th, Dayton Metro Library, downtown Dayton. Room 1A.

The May meeting will be fabric dying by Maxine Thomas. Meeting will be at Chris Landis' house, bring your own lunch. There will be no business meeting that day. Instead we will conduct the meeting the week before through email.

Other:

Linda has suggested a new project involving a Mystery Block quilt. Participants will complete one block, the blocks will then be assembled, the quilt completed and donated to Quilts Of Valor. <https://www.qovf.org/>

Check It Out:

Maxine Thomas will have an exhibit:
