Treasurer's report: $1272.40 is in the checking account.

(Renewal of group name with the State of Ohio, Taxes for the group have been done)

Old Business:

Dues: $15 annual dues are now due. You can pay Chris Z.

Exhibits:

Registration forms needed for exhibiting can be found on the MVAQN website.

Aullwood: Aullwood has not sent out entry forms and there have only been a couple of entries. It was agreed that Carroll would speak with Barb and suggest the exhibit be cancelled or postponed.

Troy-Hayner: "Still In Stitches"

January 11 to February 17, 2019

Please contact Carroll if you are interested in exhibiting. Up to five quilts can be put forward, Troy-Hayner decides which quilts will go into the exhibit and they will also hang the exhibit. Carroll would like to know if you are interested by August 10th. It is okay to put forward quilts that have shown elsewhere, there is no time restriction.

19th Amendment:

Will exhibit at the Centerville and Woodbourne libraries March, 2019

Details are being worked out for Yellow Springs, August/September, 2019 and the University of Dayton September, 2019.

Wright State is scheduled for March, 2020; also interested are the Schuster Center, Sinclair Community College.

Only those who are members of Yellow Springs Arts Council will be able to have quilts exhibiting at Yellow Springs. Dues are $20.00 a year, however MVAQN will subsidize half of that so you will only need to pay $10.00. Chris Z is collecting for the group and will pay YSAC directly.

Check out <http://ysartscouncil.org/> to see what you get with your YSAC membership.
