Fifth/Third exhibit: September 2016; if you have a water themed quilt in the works this would be a good exhibit to display them.

Art in the City: DVAC has not announced where each piece of art will be located. I'll update that information as I get it. The art will be exhibited in a downtown Dayton location from June 3rd to 17th.

The public will be invited to vote on their favorite work of art. Ann Diller and Pam Geisel have works accepted also.

Selected artists commit to at least a 2-hour demo and/or appearance during the Art in the City opening event, Jun 3, 5-10 p.m. Chris Landis and Ronnie Doyal have volunteered to be there but we would welcome anybody who would like to come down and keep us company.

Water Themed Quilts:

If the group is interested in applying to Troy-Hayner or Rosewood in April 2017 for an exhibit in 2018 using the water themed quilts, the quilts need to be finished by December 2016. The size requirements are no smaller than a 96 inch perimeter and no greater than a 192 inch perimeter.
