Aullwood:

Fifth/Third Showcase exhibit:

February 2017 (Janet Lasley) something small and sculptural will be needed.

Water Themed Quilts:

If the group is interested in applying to Troy-Hayner or Rosewood in April 2017 for an exhibit in 2018 using the water themed quilts, the quilts need to be finished by December 2016.

Ronnie has volunteered to photograph one quilt for each person for the application. If you wish to be included in the application, bring one water themed quilt for Ronnie to photograph to the November meeting or make arrangements to deliver it to Ronnie in December. This would also be a good time to fill out the registration form (mvaqn.com) and send it to Carroll.

Celebrating Quilt Stories Wright State University:

January 19-21

Contact Linda Morgan for more information (Linda.morgan@wright.edu). This is an opportunity for MVAQN members to have a space for their own exhibit, or a group exhibit.

Chris Z suggested that the Study Group exhibit some of their past works. She will be in charge of determining which projects will be included.

There will be workshops and presentations which are free along with free parking.

Additionally, there will be a pre-lecture November 17th, 2016 from 12:30 to 1:50pm, Millett Hall Atrium.

Archives:

Janet has recently come in to possession of MVAQN's archives. Winnie suggested and we all agreed that we should look into having Wright State University house the archives.
