MVAQN EXHIBITS

Troy Hayner show is down

Rosewood Corridor Show is down. Marylyn Doyle has the extra quilts. Please contact her to make arrangements to pick them up.

Discussion of Water themed quilts: We have two possible exhibit opportunities for 2017. Troy Hayner and Rosewood require an application and jurying process. We will opt out of applying to Rosewood if they won't consider group exhibits. Everyone is encouraged to begin working on their water quilts. The size requirements are no smaller than a 96 inch perimeter and no greater than a 192 inch perimeter.

Wright State Women's Studies Department is accepting applications for their show January 28-30, 2016. The theme is quilts with a story. MVAQN will volunteer to present the Dayton Landmark show and offer to exhibit those quilts. Rosemary will be the point person for MVAQN but if a member would like to show one of their quilts as an individual please contact Linda Morgan (775-4818) (lindamorgan@wrights.edu) for an application.

TUESDAY NIGHT STUDY GROUP

Jenny Bowker technique of enhancing a scrap of fabric using the fabric as inspiration. Information was taken from "Machine Quilting Unlimited" magazine. (jennybowker.com)

MEMBER EXHIBITS

Fran LaSalle has a show up at the Senior Center in Yellow Springs that will come down Monday 19 October. She sold eight pieces.

Pam Geisel has several pieces up at The Winds in Yellow Springs.

Ronnie Doyal (and David Lorenz) have an exhibit at South Park United Methodist Church. There will be a reception on Sunday October 25th from noon until 2pm. Everyone is invited to attend. This will be the last day of the exhibit

- New Business:

The Epiphany Gallery at South Park United Methodist Church invites MVAQN members to hang an exhibit during 2016. These quilts can be from a group of individuals, 2 or 3 together or by a single individual. If you would like to do this, please contact Marylyn Doyle at mhdoyle.oh2@gmail.com.

We have been approached by Fifth Third Bank about possibly have a show in their gallery in 2016. Carroll and Ronnie will meet to check out the space and find out more specifics.

Dayton Art Institute will have two exhibits with a fiber connection. One is "American Sampler" with work by Grandma Moses. This exhibit will be up From November 21, 2015 to February 21, 2016 in the Special Exhibits Gallery. The second is "Visions and Dreams: Threaded Works by Mary Borkowski", it will be up from October 17, 2015 to February 28, 2016 in the South Gallery, Lower Level.
