

MVAQN MINUTES Saturday April 16, 2022

Epiphany Lutheran Church 1:30 pm

Attendance: Jennifer Greenup, Ann Diller, Linda Morgan, Barb Schneider, Chris Z, Sue DeSantis, and Joni Kreitzer with Jennifer chairing today's meeting.

Secretary's Report: Available on the website.

Treasurer's Report: Chris reported that we have a balance of $688.33. Our balance is down due to a large expense for website maintenance. We have 14 paid members so far this year. Chris Zurbuchen is still accepting dues of $15. Her address is 501 Ridgecrest Dr. Yellow Springs, OH 45387. A new member is attending today...welcome to Barb Schneider.

Old Business: Linda brought the crazy quilt squares in. They have been separated and are ready for members to take home. We distributed some at the meeting to those members who started each square. Jennifer took home the remainder of the squares and will bring them to another meeting.

Sue DeSantis reminded us that she has 3 of the quilts from our Dayton Landmarks Project: the DAI, Patterson Monument and the Courthouse. They are really the property of the guild unless we decide to otherwise disburse them.

New Business: Chris Z. mentioned that the Yellow Springs Arts Council Members show opened last night. The show will be running through May Thursday-Sunday.

We will need an all-new slate of board positions to be installed in June. Please consider volunteering for a position of Chair, Secretary or Treasurer. Most of us have been holding the positions since 2019 due to the Covid interruption. We will discuss more at the May meeting.

Helen Willis has a quilt named "Royal Wedding" accepted to the "Old Masters Remix" show at the Troy-Hayner center.

Program: Joni led a demonstration of needle felting. She brought her needle felting machine and supplies for us to try by hand and machine. She showed us samples and had lots of dyed wool for us to play with. A book she recommended is “Needle Felting by Hand or machine” by Griepentrog and Richards.

Show and Tell

Next month’s meeting will be Saturday, May 21, 2022 at 1:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann Diller, Secretary
